

I use and love XM radio, when I drive around town or across county, the weather and traffic is a new feature and it supplies me with safety and traffic information wherever I am.

Local stations are hard to find and traffic and weather are on only when the station feels like it with a barrage of commercials. This makes it difficult and annoying.